ABOUT THE SUMMIT!

The Writing for Hollywood Summit welcomes writers from all backgrounds who are interested in learning about the entertainment industry. The summit was organized by long-time San Francisco Writers Conference attendee and speaker, Cali Gilbert who has published a number of bestselling books and transitioned into screenwriting and filmmaking. Cali has brought together an elite faculty of instructors from the entertainment industry to share their knowledge and expertise for writers interested in writing for the screen, whether it be film, television or streaming media. The one-day summit will be packed with informative sessions for every aspect of the entertainment industry and provides ample opportunity to network with this creative group.
